

College Attendance Regulations

Students must maintain a minimum attendance of 75 percent.

Students with attendance below 75 percent may not be permitted to appear for the semester examination.

Medical leave may be considered according to college regulations.